

Introduction to Commercial Property and Business Interruption Insurance

Duration: 1 Day

About the course

This course puts Commercial Property and Business Interruption insurance in context. It introduces the delegates to the operation and principles of Commercial Property and Business Interruption insurance.

Who should attend?

This course has been designed for delegates with little or no previous involvement in Commercial Property or Business Interruption insurance. A good grounding in insurance practices is desirable.

Workshop Content

- exploring the reasons why customers buy Commercial Property and Business Interruption insurance
- a useful study of typical policy structures as an overview
- an outlining of policy cover and the main exclusions and restrictions
- the principles of underwriting and pricing and the differences between the two
- the factors involved in the assessment of risks and rating commonly used
- the principles of claims handling as applied to Commercial Property and Business Interruption insurance
- typical methods of investigation used in Commercial Property and Business Interruption claims handling